

Alice is still waiting.....

Little Alice is still waiting for her forever family. Alice can be shy until she gets to know you, but once she warms up she is quite friendly. Alice is living with a foster family. She is now attending school and is reported to be quite intelligent. Alice's medicals came back within normal limits. She is paperwork ready, so her adoption can be quite fast. If you are interested in little Alice, please contact us. Serious inquiries only, please!