

My husband and I worked with Carol Albers on our home study and were very pleased with her knowledge of the situation, her attention to detail, her considerate manner, flexibility and patience. She has visited Ukraine and established personal contacts both with local facilitators and state institutions, so she has first-hand sources of latest developments and issues. Carol provided us with many valuable insights and well-directed guidance, for which we are most grateful. We recommend her whole-heartedly and will be happy to respond to any additional questions you may have.
