

Testimonial for Adopt Abroad

Adopt Abroad is the best full-service adoption agency ever! I've always wanted a family, but thought it was impossible, because I'm a single American man living in Europe. I'd spoken to other agencies reference adoption at the 2007 European Adoption Symposium, only to be told they don't arrange adoptions for single men. I felt really small and stupid for thinking I could ever have a family. All I wanted to do was slip out the back door and drive four hours back home, until I met Carol from Adopt-Abroad. Dr. Albers asked me a couple of questions, before giving me her card, some words of encouragement, free advice and a sincere smile. She made me feel like I wasn't stupid to think, that maybe I could provide a safe and loving home for the right child. Thanks to Adopt-Abroad, I learned quickly where I might find the right child, which presentations would give me the most information, and which other agencies at the conference to approach. Adopt Abroad provided expert advice, and a fair, painstakingly thorough and professional home study for a nominal fee. They even identified the perfect child for me--making my life-long dream come true while helping a teen out of foster care into a safe and loving home. After these last five months, I'm convinced that Adopt Abroad is probably the best thing that has ever happened to me, and I'm going to do everything in my power to provide a safe and loving home for my child. Adopt Abroad is everything a full service, non-profit adoption agency should be, providing child-centered, professional services with integrity, honesty and compassion at prices even a single teacher like me can afford.

Thanks Sincerely,
Jeff Black
